Congratulations, Tyler Nguyen

Congratulations to eighth grader Tyler Nguyen for being nominated to receive this year's Youth Citizenship Award. Great job, Tyler!

Thank you to Coach Peters and Coach Shirley for your leadership with these athletes.

Junior Cotillion Invitation

The National League of Junior Cotillions Columbus Chapter has invited several of our BRMS students to attend an after-school program on Manners and Etiquette on March 4 from 4:00 until 5:30 pm. Students who are part of our academic competitive teams were among those chosen for this opportunity. The purpose of this event is to prepare our students with appropriate social skills in a variety of situations. We thank the Junior Cotillion organization for providing this free opportunity for our students.

Congratulations, Teacher Cadets

Teacher Cadets is a club for students that are interested in teaching as a career. BRMS is the only middle school in our district that offers this club for our students. These students have been working on a lesson plan for a second grade class. This year five teams competed in the first round of teaching. Three teams were chosen by CSU judges to compete in the final round of teaching at North Columbus Elementary School on Monday, March 9. The cadets that made it to the final round are: Ansley Jankiewicz, Olivia Oyster, Angela Li, Annalise McCann, Abby Hart, and Ava Perez. Great job, eagles, and thank you to Mrs. Melissa Gray for your leadership with these students.
