Black History Month Presents...

Maya Angelou

If you're always trying to be normal, you never know how amazing you can be.

I've learned that people will forget what you said, people will forget what you did, but people will never forget how you made them feel.

You may not be able to control your life or the events that happen to you, but you can decide not to be ruled by them.

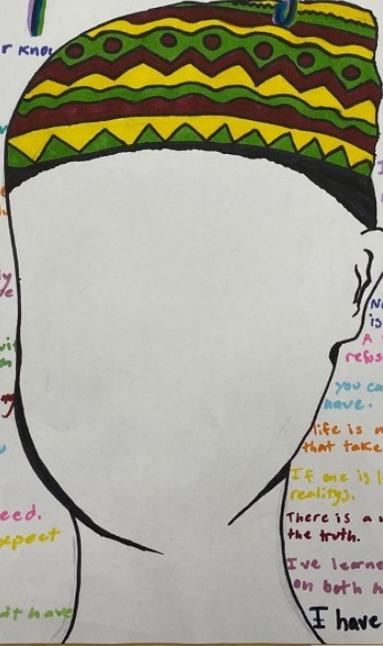

We delight in the beauty of the butterfly, but rarely admit the changes it has gone through to achieve that beauty.

I've learned that whenever I decide something with an open heart, I usually make the right decision. You can only become truly accomplished at something you love.

If you don't like something, change it, if you can't change it, change your attitude.

We need much less than we think we need. If I am not good to myself, how can I expect others to be good to me?

I learned that even when I have pains, I don't have to be one

Without courage we cannot practice any other virtue with consistency. We can't be kind, true, merciful, generous, or honest.

Have enough courage to trust love one more time, and always one more time.

If you're always trying to be someone else, you will never know how amazing you can be.

Hate, it has caused a lot of problems, but it has not yet solved one.

Success is liking yourself, liking what you do, and liking how you do it.

Never make someone a priority when all you are to them is an option.

A wise woman wishes to be no one's enemy; a wise woman refuses to be any one's victim.

You can't use up creativity, the more you use, the more you have.

Life is not measured by the # of breaths but by the moments that take your breath away.

If one is lucky, a solitary fantasy can totally transform one million realities.

There is a world of difference between truth and facts. Facts can obscure the truth.

I've learned that you shouldn't go through life with a catcher's mitt on both hands; you need to be able to throw something back.

I have my own back.
