MY TOP CAREER

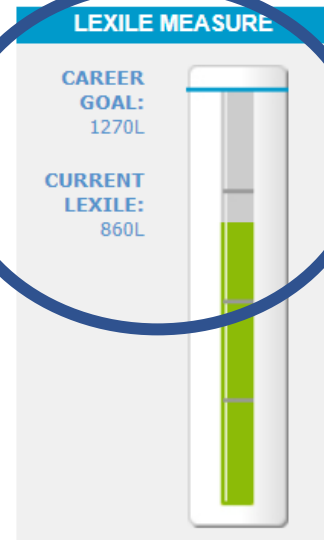

Urban/Regional Planner Lexile Range 1180L-1460L

Urban and regional planners help plan how land is used. They may help manage a space as it grows. Planners meet with leaders and people from a city or town. They help decide what growth will help that place. Then, they look at plans. They may look at plans for schools, parks, or shopping malls. They study the place. They learn about its needs. They figure out whether their plans are possible. Then, they present the plans to leaders. Urban planners must understand any laws about what may be built.

The median Lexile level for this career is 1270L.
