

Student of Integrity Scholarship

Better Business Bureau (BBB) Education Foundation is now offering the "Students of Integrity Scholarship" to recognize high school students who personify and communicate ethics in the real world. High school seniors are encouraged to apply by creating a 90-second video that chronicles the student navigating an ethical dilemma.

Four scholarships of $1,000 will be awarded to winning applicants submitted by students from the following Georgia and Alabama counties:

(GA) Baker, Ben Hill, Berrien, Calhoun, Chattahoochee, Clay, Colquitt, Cook, Crisp, Dougherty, Decatur, Early, Grady, Harris, Irwin, Lee, Macon, Marion, Miller, Mitchell, Muscogee, Quitman, Randolph, Schley, Seminole, Stewart, Sumter, Talbot, Taylor, Terrell, Thomas, Tift, Troup, Turner, Webster, and Worth

(AL) Barbour, Chambers, Lee, Russell

Eligibility:

Each student applying, must meet the following eligibility requirements:

Attend a high school, or be home schooled, in the above mentioned counties.

Graduate 2018-2019 school year with plans to attend an accredited higher education institution, (University, College or Technical School).

How to Apply:

Send a copy of your video to info@centralgeorgia.bbb.org include your name, school, and contact information so we can contact winners.

Video requirements:

Tell us about an ethical dilemma you have experienced in 90 seconds.

Application Deadline: Applications and videos are due to BBB office by April 5, 2019