December 6, 2019

Dear Senior,

Graduating from high school is a major accomplishment and an exciting time in the life of the graduate and their family. The transition to secondary education can also be an exciting but expensive undertaking. The Men's Progressive Club of Columbus, Inc. will award scholarships to students from Muscogee County. Applicants will be evaluated on scholarship, character, citizenship, and school and community involvement.

The completed applications (MPC and VOCED Scholarships) must be mailed to the above listed address and be postmarked on or before January 14, 2020. Applications postmarked after the deadline will not be accepted. Additionally, the applicant grade point average must be verified by a school official.

Please review the attached application closely. Your response will determine how well you place in the selection process.

Sincerely,

Wilbert L. Williams
