	Improvement in the areas of academically challenging classroom and monitoring student progress through consistent practice of the data team

What demographic data did you use?	We have previously used subgroups, SNAP, TANF, and Mobility rates

What does the demographic data tell you?	Mobility rate as well as having a variety of programs offered has effected

3. NEEDS IDENTIFICATION AND ROOT CAUSE ANALYSIS

3.1 Strengths and Challenges Based on Trends and Patterns

Read the trends and patterns summaries from each section of the data analysis process. Use the information in these summaries to complete 3.2 and 3.3. Using the summaries in 3.1 and other local data, describe the strengths and challenges or answer the guiding questions for each program. Include strengths and challenges related to: a) general program implementation, and b) students and adults involved in or affected by the program. Focus on strengths and challenges that will assist in the identification of needs during 3.2. Watch the Identifying Need webinar for additional information and guidance.

Strengths and Challenges Based on Trends and Patterns

Coherent Instructional: Summarize the coherent instructional system trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?

The team has observed that there is a need to continue to refine the processes and protocols around planning and instruction, delivery of quality instruction and monitoring student progress. There are currently procedures and processes in place that include instructional focus time and common planning among subjects. While there is an RTI plan in place, there is a need for a more effective monitoring form Academic Coaches and Administration.

Effective Leadership: Summarize the effective leadership trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?

The team has observed that while there was improvement to the structures in place to support teachers, The focus continues to be a narrowed focus the following: high quality instruction, opportunities to build and cultivate teacher leaders, and practices that demonstrate a climate and culture that breeds student achievers.

Professional Capacity: Summarize the professional capacity trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?

The team has observed that continuous work on strengthening and restructuring the recruitment and mentor/mentee programs would be beneficial in attracting and retaining quality staff. The team also observed that while their is high quality staff development offered, the monitoring and support systems need to continue to allow for ongoing feedback and support.

Family and Community Engagement: Summarize the family and community engagement trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?

The team has observed that there are established programs that welcome communication between the community and the school; the school processes have improved to include more opportunities for parent voice, partnerships, and sharing of decision making that positively effect students and their families. We observe that still more supports should be provided to the parents to support student learning and healthy development at home and at school.

Strengths and Challenges Based on Trends and Patterns

Supportive Learning Environment:
Summarize the supportive learning environment trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?

The team has observed that support systems have been improved to enhance and cultivate stronger relationships among staff, teachers and students. All areas of leadership (guidance, administration, teachers, academic coaches and deans) have taken more active roles in guiding the whole learner to success. Rituals and routines that are established should be followed with fidelity to include reinforcement and recognition of positive behaviors that effect the learning environment. Continued monitoring and feedback will stay in tact.

Demographic and Financial: Summarize the demographic and financial trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?

Previous data concluded that there is a high mobility rate and more than 50% of the students qualify for SNAP and TANF. In addition the school has more than a 70% poverty rate.

We expect that the numbers will remain near the same, if not trend upward for the poverty rate.

Student Achievement: Summarize the student achievement trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?

Improvement in the areas of math and science, continue to effect overall outcomes. The academically challenging classroom and monitoring student progress through consistent practice of the data team process continues to be the focus for decreasing the number of beginning and developing learners and increase the number of proficient learners.

2. SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT GOALS

2.1 Creating Improvement Goals

Creating Improvement Goals

Effective goals assist districts and schools in attaining collective agreement about what work needs to occur for improvement to take place. Goals should focus and prioritize efforts and resources of the district/school to the previously identified needs and create a focus for improvement. Setting goals should be a strategic process which aligns the goals within one of the five systems: Coherent Instruction, Effective Leadership, Professional Capacity, Family and Community Engagement, or Supportive Learning Environement.

There are several categories of goals which may be used in school improvement but the one type which focuses on improving results and not just enhancing processes is a SMART goal. SMART is an acronym for:

Specific Measurable Attainable Relevant Time-Bound

An example of a SMART goal is:

By the end of the school year 2017 - 2018, all teachers will heave training and be included in a PLC for their content-specific area.

Enter the school's two to four overarching needs and related root causes, as identified in the Comprehensive Needs Assessment 2017 - 2018 School Report. Use the codes below to list the structures addressed through the goal within each system. For each system, identify one to six action steps that will be taken to address the root causes that have created the overarching need. Finally, identify any supplemental action steps necessary to ensure the necessary supports are in place for the listed subgroups.
