Red Ribbon Week

Red Ribbon Week is a time to educate and discuss with students why it is important to “Just Say No to Drugs.” The following activities have been planned to encourage students and our Reese Road family to live a drug free life.

The theme this year is: Real Heroes Don't Do Drugs

Monday, October 23, 2017

Red Day: Students, faculty, and staff will wear red to show they live a drug free life.

Tuesday, October 24, 2017

Sports Team Day: Students, Faculty and Staff will wear their favorite sports team T-Shirt with jeans to represent that their team promote a healthy lifestyle.

Wednesday, October 25, 2017

Students will wear shades because they are “Too Cool for Drugs.” PTA will sell hats for $3 on Thursday. Students will receive Smarties for being too smart to do drugs.

Thursday, October 26, 2017

Students will wear hats to “Put a Lid on Drugs.” PTA will sell hats for $3.

Friday, November 27, 2017

Super Hero Day: Students will dress as their favorite super hero. Wear a shirt, hat, or costume that is within dress code that represent their favorite super hero. Let's take a stand, you have the Power to stay drug free.
