Business Operations Update

Phase-in Return Plan

- We are continuing to monitor information related to the COVID-19 pandemic, with attention to national, state, and local data. Local medical professionals and public health agencies are preparing for possible increased rates of transmission following the winter break.
- Based on current data and advice from our medical community and public health agencies, we will return for the spring semester using a phased in-approach for students
- Each employee will report to his her designated work location, based upon current assignments, following a staggered schedule according to each site starting January 6, 2021.

Phase one: January 6-15, 2021

All students will begin Second Semester Virtually

Phase two: January 19, 2021

Choice model: all students, grades Pre-K-12

District Operating Hours

- All sites remain physically closed to the public without appointment.
- Appointments are required for any visitor entry.
- All visitors are required to wear a face mask/covering, have their temperature taken, and observe social distancing in accordance with the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) guidelines.
