Why do places matter? They matter because they are a part of our universal story, one of the ties that bind our history, culture and values together. They reflect where we have been and where we are going. They may not all be beautiful, but they all embody our culture – past and present. Choose a property in Columbus, GA that is at least 50 years old that matters TO YOU, write an essay about why “This Place Matters” TO YOU and take a picture with a “This Place Matters” sign*.
