

's Informational Rubric

- Did you draw a picture or complete a story map?
- Did you state your topic?
- Did you give facts about the topic?
- Do you end with a closing that summarizes your topic?
- Did you try to add words to your picture or story map?
- Did you retell it to a friend?
- Did your friend understand your writing?
- Did you add anything that your friend suggested to make your writing better?
- Did you think about how you
 - wrote your letters, spaced your letters,
 - capitalized the first word in sentences, names, and 'I'
 - ended your sentences with punctuation

Once upon a time there was a _____ named _____.
_____ She lived _____.
One day		Finally
and they lived happily ever after.

Bats are unusual animals. They are mammals that can fly. They sleep during the day and hunt for food at night. They are interesting.