

PLEASE RESPOND TO THE FOLLOWING.

(These questions are designed to assess your creativity and problem-solving skills, not necessarily your writing abilities.)

1. By submitting this application, I agree to uphold the standards of this council or be relieved of my position. I understand that this is a position of honor, not of right. I believe that I will be a suitable representative for the Class of 2016 because

2. I believe I can specifically contribute by

3. Imagine you shrink to the size of a quarter and you find yourself in an empty room with one open window (a few feet from the ground, a standard window height) and no door. You see near you three items: a paperclip, a tangerine, and a Pringles container (with barbeque Pringles inside). You are wearing jeans, flip flops, and a t-shirt. No one will ever come to your rescue; no one can hear you. How will you escape the room?

Self-Assessment. Don't give yourself all 5s—no one is perfect. Just be honest! And if you put all 5s, we will know you did not read these instructions. Attention to detail is an important skill.

(Rate yourself. 1=Rarely/Never; 2=Sometimes; 3=Half of the time; 4=Most of the time; 5=Always)

SENIOR COUNCIL DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The Senior Class Council has many responsibilities, which include, but are not limited to:

- Designing, ordering, and distributing class t-shirts
- Planning and implementing two class picnics (one per semester)
- Collecting and digitally recording cap and gown measurements
- Planning and implementing Class Day
- Planning, decorating, and implementing the Senior Luncheon
- Assisting with various graduation duties
- Assisting with Senior Parent Night
- Representing an Advisory class

Senior Class Council Members serve as leaders of the Senior Class. As such, they are expected to participate positively to both the Senior Class Council and the whole of Northside High School. Failure to do so may lead to removal from the Senior Class Council. The following list is not exhaustive, and the moderators reserve the right to add to and edit expectations. Senior Class Council members are expected to:

- Attend and actively participate in all Senior Class Council meetings and activities.
 - The SCC will meet approximately every other week at 7:30-8:00.
 - You are permitted four absences.
 - You may have one unexcused absence. A second unexcused absence will result in removal.
 - If you are going to be absent for an excused reason, you must let Dr. Ginther know ahead of time. Excused absences include tutoring or making up academic work, doctor's appointments, illness, or bereavement.
 - You are expected to attend all meetings and events on time.
 - Two tardies equals one unexcused absence.
- Be thoroughly involved in the planning and execution of all events for the Senior Class.
 - You must participate in ALL areas and serve as leaders on at least two committees.
 - Committees may meet outside of the designated time for Council to meet.
- Represent the desires and needs of ALL students in your class in a conscientious and responsible manner.
 - You will be assigned as a representative for an Advisory class. You are to report to your assigned Advisory and make sure that each student in that Advisory is informed.
 - You will bring back to the Council any of their questions, concerns, suggestions, etc.
- You are to be courteous and personable in all of your dealings with students and with faculty members.
- You will maintain at least a 3.0 GPA and have a clean discipline record.
- You should also not be absent/tardy from school on a regular basis so as to cause problems with your attendance.
