Dear Freshmen Parent(s),

High school is an exhilarating period for both parents and students, but it can also be overwhelming and filled with responsibilities. To assist parents in navigating the challenges of their high school students' journey, Northside provides class packages. These packages consolidate the significant expenses that arise throughout the year into a single, convenient, and affordable price. By opting for the class package, you can enjoy discounted prices on various items, including class dues, freshman t-shirts, and more. For further information about each item included in the package, please refer to the detailed listing below.

Dear Senior Parent(s),

High school presents a thrilling experience for both you and your child, but it can also be a hectic and stressful period. To alleviate the confusion and busyness of being a parent to a high school student, Northside offers class packages. These packages combine the main expenses of the year into a convenient and cost-effective bundle. By opting for the class package, you can enjoy discounted prices on various items like class dues, senior t-shirts, graduation paraphernalia, and more. While the package includes a cap and gown, it doesn't cover the cost of graduation announcements/invitations. You can purchase those separately from Herff Jones.
