Self-control- (noun) The ability to control one's self including actions, reactions, and choices made. Having self-control also means that you are able to deal with disappointments.

When you are an inquirer, self-control looks like:

Reflecting on difficulties to find new solutions

Rep 50 Skills for the Week:

1. No matter the circumstances, be honest.
2. Be positive and enjoy life. Some things just aren't worth getting upset over. Keep everything in perspective and focus on the good in your life.
3. Carpe Diem – Seize the Day! Be positive and enjoy life.

Richards is a PBIS and IB World School where we strive to emphasize growth of the whole person: intellectual, personal, emotional and social.

“Too often in life, something happens and we blame other people for us not being happy or satisfied or fulfilled. So the point is, we all have choices, and we make the choice to accept people or situations or to not accept situations.”

- Tom Brady
