Jac Cumming's Breakfast Drive for TSA

We are excited that a local student has asked to partner with Truth Spring for a service project. His name is Jac Cummings and he is doing a Breakfast Drive for Truth Spring Academy. Here is a note from Jac:

“Hello, my name is Jac Cummings and I’m in 8th grade at Richards Middle School. I am doing a community service project through the student Advisory Council of Georgia. I decided that I would like to use this opportunity to help Truth Spring Academy. Starting Monday, January 20th and going through Monday, January 28th, I will be collecting breakfast food items. If you need information as to what specific items you can donate, click in the link below:”
