

Charleen Brown Robinson

SCHOLARSHIP

The Charleen Brown Robinson Scholarship Foundation has been established to recognize the academic and civic efforts of William Henry Spencer High School scholars.

Charleen Brown Robinson served the community of Columbus, Georgia as educational leader for 26 and half years. Throughout her career, she demonstrated her commitment to the development and empowerment of others as an elementary school teacher, academic coach, assistant principal, and principal within Muscogee County School District. Her most notable position was serving as the Principal of Rigdon Road Elementary for 14 yeras.

Her dedication to serving her community extended to her work with community organizations including St. Mary's United Methodist Church and Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. As a member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., she was guided by their principles of scholarship, public service, and sisterhood.

Ms. Robinson was an avid supporter of Spencer High School. Fundraising, volunteering, attending extracurricular activities, and supporting school administration were all means she utilized to contribute to the growth of the students and school. The Charleen Brown Robinson Foundation is pleased to keep her legacy alive by providing scholarships for selected students who demonstrate financial need and meet eligibility requirements.
